All the advice help lines and advice centres in this leaflet will give you free, independent and confidential advice. In some circumstances solicitors may charge so check before you take advice.

Most of them will be able to help with the following kinds of advice:

- benefits and tax credits
- debt
- immigration
- employment
- housing

Some centres only help with certain matters and we have given brief information about this as well as community languages spoken. If only English is spoken it should be possible for an interpreter to be arranged.

These details including opening times may change – if your journey is difficult or you need to confirm the centres services please ring beforehand or check on the website www.bradford.gov.uk/clasp Home visits may be possible.
